Dear Frankie:

Thank you so much for emailing the documents to me. I have reviewed them and I have no comment about them. I see they have a grievance of some sort and I appreciate their frustration at the electoral process, however there is nothing in the complaint that has anything to do with me or my tiny, tiny little campaign. I do hope I can be released from this issue so I can go as far away from the electoral process as possible. I do think that our campaign process should be totally publicly funded - only then will we have elected officials that actually care about the people they serve - the public....

I am the only person left associated with the defunct campaign -

I would very much appreciate a closure of my campaign status -

Thank you for your help,

Barbara Mulvaney
